

PROGRAM

Saturday, 1st September 2018

Time	Room	Speaker	Topic
08.00-17.00	Chicago Foyer		Registration
08.00-08.45	42 nd Street		Arrival Coffee & Tea
08.45-09.00	Chicago & Chorus line		Welcome and Outline of the Program Chairs: Jim Siderov & Gail Rowan
09.00-10.00	Chicago & Chorus line	Paul Mitchell	Lung Cancer Update Chair: Jim Siderov  Oral agents targeted to EGFR and ALK and more recently immunotherapy started the change in lung cancer treatment, this update will expand on where these treatments are up to and are heading and new areas of treatment options. (abs#1)
10.00-11.00		Sophia Frentzas	Colorectal Cancer Update Chair: Jim Siderov  Many advances are happening in the optimal treatment of colorectal cancer, from the treatment of right sided v left sided tumours, length of adjuvant treatment, and the potential place of immune therapies in some CRC. This update will look at these and other new insights into CRC treatment. (abs#2)
11:00-11.15	42 nd Street		Morning tea
11.15-12.00	Chicago & Chorus line	Myles Wright	Multiple Myeloma Update Chair: Michael Powell For years this condition has been exploding with treatment options and an ever changing paradigm of care. In this session we will look at the current evidence for the multiple treatments available and their current place in therapy. (abs#3)
12.00-12.30		Jenny Casanova	MASCC update Chair: Michael Powell
12.30-13.30	Restaurant		Lunch
13.30-14.30	Chicago & Chorus line	Belinda Yeo	Breast Cancer Update Chair: Jenny Casanova  The treatment options in breast cancer are ever evolving, in this update areas looked at will include; the role of and use of bisphosphonates in early BC, the rise of dose-density in early BC, and newer oral agents in metastatic disease and their complex toxicities. (abs#4)
14:30-15:15		David Liew	Biosimilars Chair: Jenny Casanova  Biosimilars are coming! Whilst we are used to generic medications the use of biosimilars in cancer is relatively new with new agents on the horizon. This session will look at the clinical aspects of biosimilars, application of data between indications and pharmacovigilance aspects of their use. (abs#5)
15.15-15.30	42 nd Street		Afternoon Tea

15.30-17.00	PS 1 - Green dots Chicago	Tara Cochrane Michael Powell	Acute Leukaemia Parallel Session 1 (PS1) Chair: Michael Powell
	PS 2 - Blue dots Chorus line	Christine Carrington	Toxicities of Immunotherapy Parallel Session 2 (PS2) Chair: Jim Siderov
17.00-18.00	42 nd Street		Welcome Function with drinks and nibbles

Sunday, 2nd September 2018

Time	Room	Speaker	Topic
08.15-15.15	Chicago Foyer		Registration
08.15-09.00	42 nd Street		Arrival Tea & Coffee
09.00-10.30	Chicago & Chorus line	Gail Rowan	Professional development workshop Chair: Gail Rowan
			Pharmacists (especially experienced ones) are often called upon to teach and supervise others from pharmacists to students. This year's professional development workshop will look at tools to help. (abs#8)
10.30-10.50	42 nd Street		Morning tea
10:50-12.20	Chicago & Chorus line	Tsien Fua Sam Maleki Muhammad Alamgeer	Head & Neck Cancer Chair: Gail Rowan
			Care of patients with Head & Neck cancer is often a complex mix of radiation therapy and medical oncology and can have complex support needs. This session will include insights from both radiation oncology and medical oncology and also how the pharmacists can add great value to the care of these patients. (abs#9)
12.20-13.20	Restaurant		Lunch
13.20-14.50	Chicago & Chorus line	Benjamin Teh	Anti-infectives Update Chair: Gail Rowan
			Infection continues to be a major concern in the treatment of cancer patients. This session will look at the emerging infectious complications with the advances in treatment options and help in understanding these. (abs#10)
14.50-15.00	Chicago & Chorus line		Thanks & Close